CALLING ATTENTION NOTICE

- 2: Syed Tassawur Mehdi Kazmi (YP10-GB02),
Mr. Irshad Ahmed (YP53-SINDH06),
Mr. Muhammad Ibrahim Khan (YP17-KP05)
Ms. Shazia Batool Hazara (YP06-Balochistan04) and Mr. Ramiz Ali Malik (YP58-SINDH11) would like to call the attention of Honorable Youth Prime Minister & his cabinet towards the latest issue of petrol shortage in the Country. The Government should pay a quick attention to get masses out of this worst situation of fuel shortage.

RESOLUTIONS

- 3: Ms. Mizghan Mehboob Kirmani (YP54-SINDH07),
Mr. Darya Khan Pahore (YP51-SINDH04),
Mr. Sohaib Saeed (YP02-AJK02) would like to move the following resolution:

“This House is of the opinion that the country should manage the following to counter terrorism:
Madrassa System
Border Security of the four provinces
Monitoring committee on the Arms and Ammunitions
Reduce poverty and build more schools
Control on Media cells and filtration.”
- 4: Ms. Rahy Farooq (YP11-ICT01) and Mr. Muhammad Furqan Khan (YP55-SINDH08) would like to move the following resolution:
“This house believes that a strict action must be taken against the leakage of billions of rupees, out of the already limited budget for education, caused by the existence of 1205 ghost schools in Pakistan. The house suggests a public-private collaboration for substandard government and ghost schools inspired by the ‘teach-for-America’ model to uplift the system of education.”
- 5: Mr. Faisal Saleh Yaqub (YP33-PUNJAB11),
Mr. Ali Raza (YP23-PUNJAB04),
Mr. Muhammad Ibrahim Khan (YP17-KP05) would like to move the following resolution:

“This House is of the opinion that government must implement article 25-A of the constitution in its true letter and spirit thereby ensuring provision of education to 5.5 million out of school children in Pakistan. Effective measures must be taken such as launching an enrolment drive, identification of ghost schools and meritorious recruitment of school teachers leading to high enrolment rate, improved academic performance and high literacy rate.”

- 6: Ms. Mashal Mushtaq (YP36-PUNJAB17) would like to move the following resolution:

“The House believes that child labour is a plague that is destroying young minds. Realizing the damage that it causes on individual level in terms of its adverse effect on child's health, educational loss and on collective level in terms of involving children in illegal activities such as street beggary, the government shall introduce schemes such as providing welfare payments to the under-privileged families and shall ensure the implementation of laws against child labour.”

- 7: Mr. Suneel Parwani (YP59-SINDH12)
Mr. Ali Izhar Bajwa (YP22-PUNJAB03)
Mr. Saffi Hussam (YP41-PUNJAB22)
Syed Tassawur Mehdi Kazmi (YP10-GB02) would like to present the following resolution:

“The House strongly condemns the publishing of offensive caricatures of the Prophet Muhammad (SAW) by the French satirical magazine Charlie Hebdo. The house is of the opinion that disrespecting sacred and holy personalities, idols or scriptures is extremely unacceptable, reprehensible and distasteful. The house ardently believes that freedom of expression does not warrant hate speech directed at any particular individual or community based at the expense of their venerated beliefs. It is also urged that the government should devise a policy to take this issue up in protest at all relevant international forums.”

- 8: Mr. Naveed-ur-Rehman Anwar (YP18-KP06) would like to like to move the following resolution:

“This House is of the opinion that native languages must be taught in schools so that children must have awareness about their culture and heritage. The number of national languages must also be increased and linguistic research must be enhanced in the country to develop the sense of patriotism in the young generation.”

- 9: Mr. Malik Muhammad Danish (YP29-PUNJAB) would like to move the following resolution:

“This House expresses its dire concern on failure to curtail polio endemic in Pakistan. Numerous reasons such as militancy, dearth of public health preventive strategies and anti-polio immunization awareness campaigns, which have caused the rise in polio cases, must be addressed by the government immediately to protect the future generation of Pakistan.”

PRIVATE MEMBER'S BILL

- 10: Ms. Sammiya Mujtaba (YP42-PUNJAB23) would like to present a Private Member's Bill entitled “Mandatory Civic and Political Education Act 2014”
